

Acute Pain Management

Training Objectives

- A brief overview of pain and definition of acute pain
- To discuss differences in treatment goals of acute vs chronic pain
- To revise the use of the WHO Analgesia Ladder
- Understand the importance of managing acute pain management in the progression to chronic pain
- A brief look at some of the barriers to effective relief of acute pain in the elderly
- A more detailed understanding of the medications used in acute pain and in particular, their adverse effects
- An overview of the management of postsurgical acute pain

Ward Medication Management's expert clinical pharmacists provide medication management training.

To learn more about Chronic Pain Management contact us today.

Contact us on: 1800 927 366 | info@wardmm.com.au